I saw a sign a light in the darkness for me

A wonderful truth to believe, incredible love to receive

Now I see, I believe, and I trust your love for me

Jesus you conquered the darkness You silenced the raging sea

You gave up eternal glory, now I believe you did it for me

Jesus you carried my burden You set this captive free

You rose from the dead as king and now I believe You did it for me

There was a void an ache that I tried to conceal
A longing for love that was real
A yearning for mercy to heal
You made a choice you gave up your life to save me
You went to the cross to make peace
You died so the world could be freed
